4262. MS. PRAMILA BOHIDAR:
SHRI B.J. PANDA:

Will the Minister of WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi

(a) whether an official of United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime has stated that around 20,000 girls are being trafficked in the country; and

(b) if so, the action plan of Government to crack down on traffickers to control this menace?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI RENUKA CHOWDHURY): (a) As per the information supplied by United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime, the National Human Rights Commission Report 'Trafficking in Women and Children in India' states that "A study conducted in 1992 estimated that at any given time, 20,000 girls are being transported from one part of the country to another".

(b) The Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956 (ITPA) supplemented by the Indian Penal code prohibits trafficking in human beings including children for purpose of prostitution and lays down severe penalties for traffickers. The ITPA is now being further amended providing for more stringent punishment for trafficking in persons including girls. As per information received from Ministry of Home Affairs, the Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D) has prepared a training manual on "Human Trafficking-Handbook for Investigators" for use in the police training institutes.
